

Liverpool's dream

Creation 2018

Liverpool

Dreams don't sleep.

Like a tree on the moon

the Giant, lying on a raft has stranded on the beach of New Brighton.

Who knows on what ship he has taken off his diving suit, what storms he has suffered from and what currents have pushed him towards Liverpool.

The fact remains that the Little Girl Giant has appointed her brother, the Little Boy Giant, to go to see him.

He has settled in St George's Hall.

Besides the City has organized a fancy dress ball in his honour.

Even if thunder wanted to crush the city,

sewn clouds are protecting the sky.

The heart of the inhabitants radiates so strongly that we can hear the beats echoing over to Dublin.

Careful, the dreams of the Giants alight in Liverpool!
