

LIVERPOOL'S DREAM

In the last emergency meeting of Liverpool City Council we have observed a piece of information of a very special kind.

It would seem that a small boat named the Neptune has brought back a fishing net lost on the sea, in which was imprisoned the world's biggest sandal.

Its size is the one of a sperm whale it looks like a ladybird caught in a butterfly net.

The beast is suspended at Canning Dock near the ship that brought it back.
