Monsieur Bourgogne's Bull Machin

2023 creation
Nantes – Saint-Herblain

Nantes is a city whispering to the ears a nonchalance that needs to be tamed.
A sort of weightlessness to sniff sideways to avoid being dragged somewhere else than underneath our feet.

It might be a journey where two dog friends want to see each other.

Deep down the Bull Machin and the Xolo came more to have fun than to distract people.

They both have wonders underneath their paws. When they run, the concrete shines with tenderness and bends to embrace passers-by with two arms: like that!!
